WELCOME TO GOMEL!!

GOMEL, BELARUS

Gomel is a city in the Republic of Belarus. It is the administrative center of Gomel region. It is the second largest and second most populous regional center with developed industry, science, culture. It is also an important transport hub and political center of interregional relations of Russia, Ukraine and Belarus. The population is about 500 thousand people.

Gomel is one of the most beautiful cities in Belarus, with its rich historical, cultural and scientific potential. It has a unique look and style. Gomel is located in the South-East of the country on the river Sozh. Its advantageous geographical position is promising for both domestic and foreign businesses.

Gomel is one of the intellectual centers of the Republic. It is a venue for major cultural and sporting events.

It is open to all forms of cooperation and always faithful to the traditions of hospitality.

Palace athletics was built in 1981, it covers 6174 sq. m. It was a unique solution to replace steel support structures on laminated wood blocks. In this way 550 tons of steel were saved during the construction.

The special synthetic surface for the sports arena creates a perfect environment for training.

Palace athletics is an ultramodern complex for athletics with a well-equipped platform for training of professional athletes.

There are straight and circular track on the 125 and 200 m waiting for lovers of trekking. Also there are specially equipped places for throwing spears and kernel
