President of the Hellenic Sports Federation of the Deaf / President of the European Deaf Sports Organization (EDSO) Mr. Iosif Stavrakakis

As President of the Hellenic Sports Federation of the Deaf, I am proud that once again Greece is the host country of such a great sporting event. The 14th European Deaf Tennis Championships will be held in Chersonissos of Crete, which is not only a tourist destination, but also a destination for international sport events. It is a great honor and joy that during a pandemic, Greece proves once again that it can be at the center of sporting events. Admittedly, last year for all humanity is a difficult time, where we are all called to show our best selves with prudence, patience and perseverance. This is how the idea was created and finally the implementation of the organization of the 14th European Deaf Tennis Championships. With respect to people, sports and public health, we are here to highlight the sporting ideal in difficult times, according to all protocols and safety measures regarding the new Sars-Cov-2. Warm thanks to all those who are our helpers and supporters. Good luck to the athletes. Chersonissos is waiting for you!

REGION OF CRETE

Chersonissos, Crete

The Municipality of Chersonissos extends from the north coastline of central Crete to the imposing mountain chains of Lasithi. It is located a few kilometers away from the international airport "Nikos Kazantzakis" of Heraklion. Within its borders there are settlements with unique characteristics and colors. We invite you to take a tour and discover the unexplored beauties of Chersonissos...make sure that you have enough time to enjoy your choices....

Chersonissos is known as the most organized tourist destination in Crete. The natural routes of Chersonissos also offer a journey through time, to the rich history of a blessed place.

Heraklion, Crete

Heraklion is the capital of Crete and one of the Mediterranean region's most fascinating and vibrant cities. It is full of places to discover. With the current efforts to open up the wonderful mediaeval city center, it speaks to us of a past full of history and great events that reflect its location at the crossroads of three continents. The city is also the commercial and technological center of the island with many different cultures.

It offers a wealth of museums, a summer-long arts festival, historical sightseeing, amazing nightlife and events throughout the year. Whatever the purpose of your visit, your stay in Heraklion will be one to remember.

Knossos

The Minoan palace is the main visitable area of Knossos. According to tradition, it was the seat of the wise king Minoas. Fascinating myths, of the Labyrinth with the Minotaur and of Daedalus with Icarus, are associated with the palace of Knossos.

Kazantzakis Museum

The Kazantzakis Museum pays tribute to the great man of spirit, the writer, thinker, philosopher, politician, traveler Nikos Kazantzakis.

It is located in the central square of the ancestral village of Nikos Kazantzakis, the historical Barbarians (today's Myrtia).

It was founded in 1983 by George Anemogiannis, set designer-costume designer, one of the pioneers of theater in Greece. His main goal was to save the author's memory and to promote his work and thought.

Aquaworld

The purpose of the Aquarium is to inform, educate, sensitize the public about the diversity of Mediterranean species and habitats, but also to highlight the timeless relationship of man with the marine Mediterranean environment. At the same time, it seeks to create stimuli and reflection on the protection and sustainable management of the marine Mediterranean ecosystem by offering a unique spectacle that fascinates young and old.

Archeological Museum of Heraklion

The Heraklion Archaeological Museum is one of the largest and most important museums in Greece, and among the most important museums in Europe. It houses representative artefacts from all the periods of Cretan prehistory and history, covering a chronological span of over 5,500 years from the Neolithic period to Roman times. The singularly important Minoan collection contains unique examples of Minoan art, many of them true masterpieces. The Heraklion Museum is rightly considered as the museum of Minoan culture par excellence worldwide. http://odysseus.culture.gr/h/1/eh151.jsp?obj_id=3327
